

Unit 1 Achievements Unlocked:

Huzzah!

Introduction:	Essay's introduction includes enough information to set the stage for the reader, avoids unnecessary windups, and includes an argumentative thesis statement.	None	Novice	Learning	Master	LEVEL UP!
Thesis Statement:	The thesis statement is clear and includes a mini-map that indicates which key points the essay will make in support of the claim stated in the thesis.	None	Novice	Learning	Master	LEVEL UP!
Analysis, part I:	The majority of the essay is analysis, discussing how the text the student is analyzing uses rhetorical appeals and/or devices to communicate its point effectively (or not).	None	Novice	Learning	Master	LEVEL UP!
Analysis, part II:	Analysis and discussion of the rhetorical devices used in the text the student is analyzing indicate whether or not those rhetorical choices were successful, and how and in what way they were (or were not) effective in communicating the work's point.	None	Novice	Learning	Master	LEVEL UP!
Support/Evidence:	Claims made in the analysis are supported by reference to specific examples from the text being analyzed.	None	Novice	Learning	Master	LEVEL UP!
Conclusion:	The essay wraps up by restating the main points made by the student/ author and by drawing broader conclusions about how one might write and communicate effectively.	None	Novice	Learning	Master	LEVEL UP!
Style, Grammar, and Mechanics:	Essay is polished, thoughtful, and shows efforts at revising to further clarity, effectiveness, and the author's ethos and style.	None	Novice	Learning	Master	LEVEL UP!
The Basics:	Essay is 800-1000 words, double spaced, standard font, with 1-inch margins and indicates the author's name clearly on the document.	None	Novice	Learning	Master	LEVEL UP!

Unit 2 Suggested Targets:

